Connecticut Higher Education Supplemental Loan Authority Certificate Program Scholarship Application: 2019-2020

The Connecticut Higher Education Supplemental Loan Authority (CHESLA) is pleased to announce the CHESLA Scholarship for the 2019-2020 academic year. We are excited to award numerous scholarships to eligible students in pursuit of higher education in the State of Connecticut.

ABOUT CHESLA

The Connecticut Higher Education Supplemental Loan Authority is a quasi-public state agency created to help students and their families finance the cost of higher education. Serving as Connecticut's leading resource for students as they plan for their college education, not only by providing financing, but by providing information and tools for students to make informed decisions; enhance the competitiveness of Connecticut institutions of higher education by providing grants and additional financing options; encourage interest in higher education; and enhance economic development through innovative higher education programs.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

In order to apply for this scholarship, an applicant must:

- Be a resident of the State of Connecticut
- Plan to attend a manufacturing or healthcare certificate program on at least a half-time basis in the 2019-2020 academic year
- Be enrolled and attending an eligible Connecticut state or non-profit, degree granting institution of higher education in the 2019-2020 academic year
- Have an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) of $6,000 or less per the student's most recent FAFSA submission
- Not be in default on any CHESLA loans

OTHER INFORMATION

Scholarships will be awarded in July and checks will be sent directly to the college or university in August. Scholarships awarded will be up to a $3,000 maximum depending on student's financial need and the cost of the program.
